The Marshallite 1957

ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF JOHN MARSHALL HIGH SCHOOL, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Dedication

In appreciation of his devoted efforts to give to every student a pattern of good handwriting, we, the Class of 1957, fondly dedicate our yearbook to Mr. W. Clyde Locker.

Mr. Locker's "Road to Good Handwriting" has encouraged us all to develop legible penmanship.

At the turn of the present century, handwriting in Virginia was at a low ebb, but forty-two years ago this Virginia teacher, strongly aware of the great need, initiated a plan to remedy the situation.

This plan, formulated by Mr. Locker, was the beginning of good handwriting in Virginia.

His presence in our school has been an inspiration to us all.

"Snappy" the turtle, used in Mr. Locker's writing books to encourage students along the "Road to Good-Handwriting," is portrayed below to illustrate that the Right Road leads to a job well done.

Foreword

More than three hundred of our students had a part in producing this book. Our advisers and faculty gave us faithful guidance. In grateful acknowledgment, we present the 1957 Marshallite.

The place of our narrative: The capital of the Old Dominion

The characters: John Marshall seniors.

The time: Nineteen hundred and fifty-seven.

The plot: The various activities of a Marshallite's senior year.

We hope that this 1957 edition of the Marshallite will make your days at John Marshall a lasting memory.

If asked to describe John Marshall to a stranger, we would tell of the two red brick buildings and the white columns on the portico. But through our minds would flash four years filled with hard work, sports, clubs, and just plain fun.

In the years to come, when thinking back over our high-school days, when we remember how our teachers helped us, when we reminisce about "the good old times," then, and only then, shall we be able to appreciate fully all that John Marshall High School has meant to us.

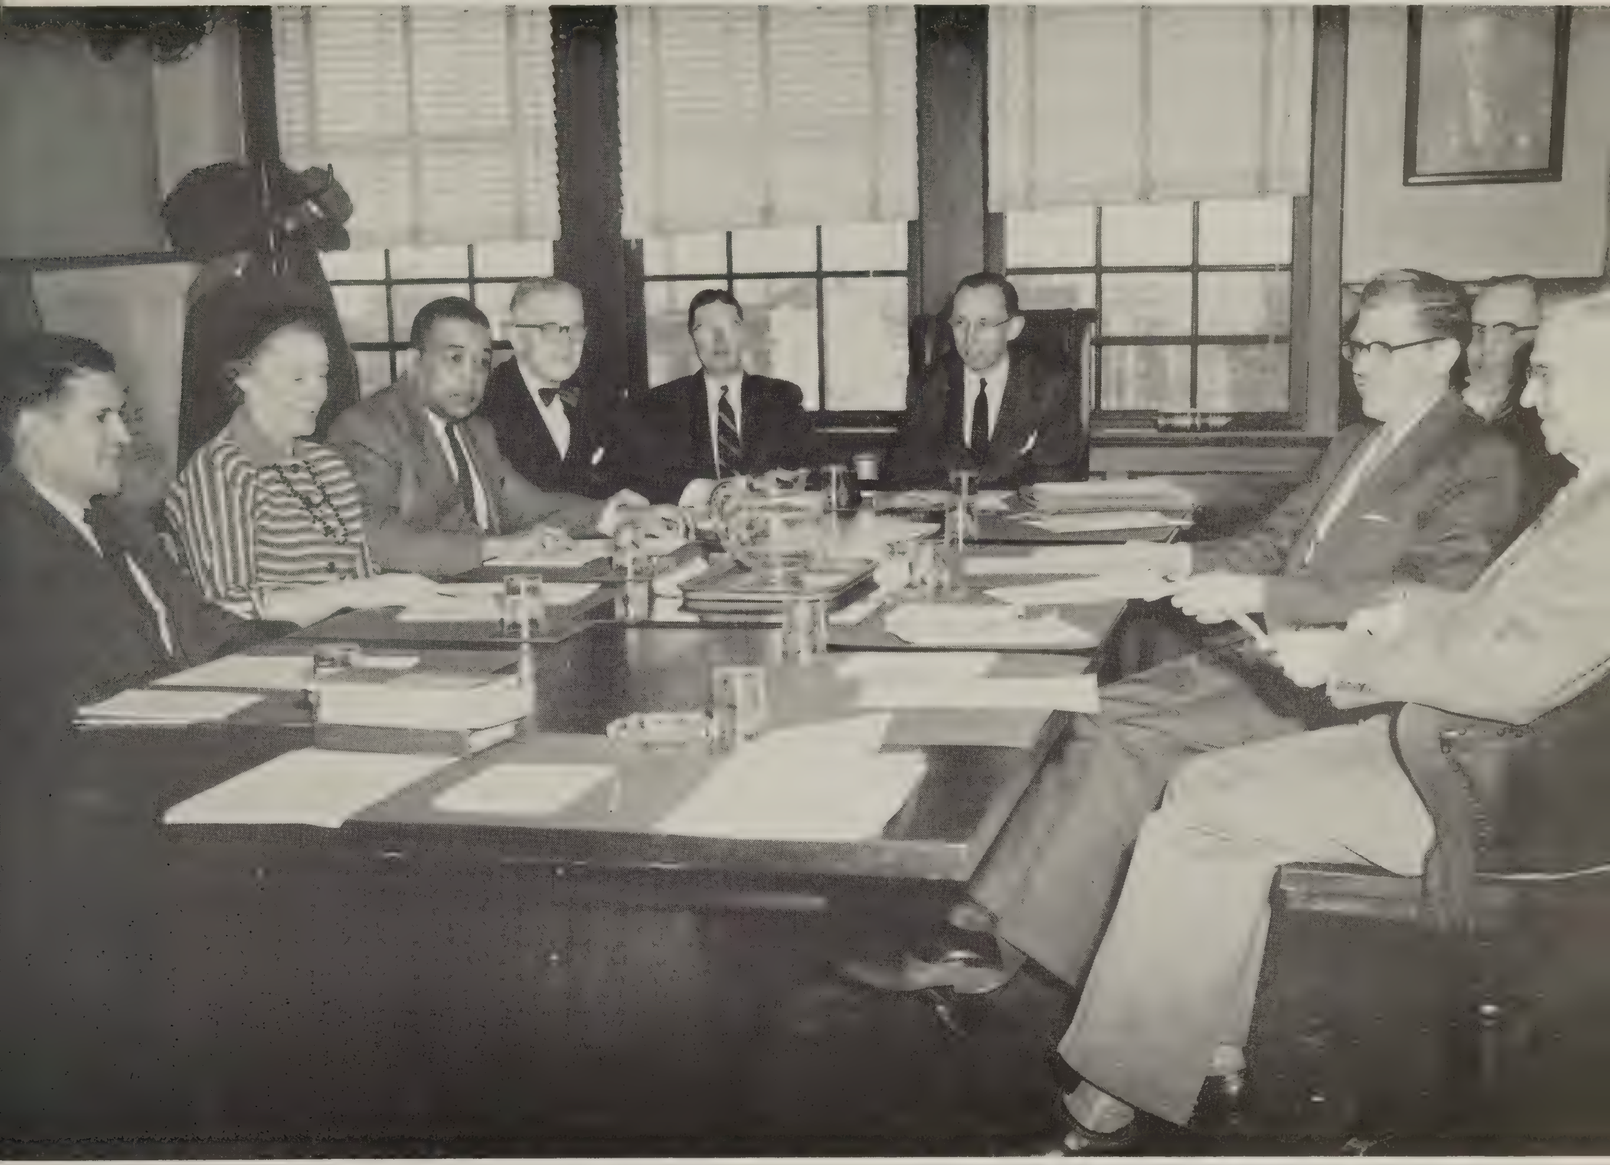
The School Board and Administrative Staff



THIS is a typical monthly picture of the Richmond School Board. The making of school laws, the interpreting of regulations, and the welfare of today's and tomorrow's school children are the business of members of the board. Their lot is not an easy one, but with the aid of school principals and counselors they help to make the life of each student a better one. Members of this important organization are: Lucian D. Adams, Assistant Superintendent; Mrs. Kenneth F. Lee, Board Vice-Chairman; Booker T. Bradshaw, Board Member; Carlisle Davis, Board Member; H. I. Willett, Superintendent; Lewis F. Powell, Jr., Board Chairman; Henry M. Eubank, Accounting Director; Edward C. Peple, Board Member; W. H. Deierhoi, Assistant Superintendent. Thomas C. Little, Assistant Superintendent and Clerk of the Board, and Frank S. Calkins, who replaces Mr. Carlisle Davis because of health, are absent from the picture.

. . . school days at J. M.

by RUTH CARVER

Summer fun and parties were pushed into the background when John Marshall seniors returned to school in September. It seemed that only hard work and a diploma were ahead of us. However, school socials and meetings added spice to our crowded agenda.

With classes scheduled and work under way, the clubs and other extra school activities began to organize. The football team started Jayem school spirit off with a boom. Although this year's team lost a number of games, its tie with our cross-town rival TeeJay set our spirits high. Miss Justice and Miss Jeff reigned together over the Victory Dance, which was held on the night following the game.

Our senior government classes spent a great deal of time preparing a mock political rally for assembly. The honorable J. Vaughan Gary and Mr. Roy E. Cabell, guest speakers and opponents in the November election, were greeted on the Jayem lawn by government students carrying posters and banners for their desired candidates. Both guests spoke to the assembly, and an interesting and enlightening debate followed.

Birthday parties seemed quite in style with Marshallite and Monocle staffs this year. In September, the Marshallite Staff helped its editor celebrate her birthday with cake and cokes. The Monocle Staff members wished their homeroom teacher happy birthday by giving her a gift and a party.

The Junior Red Cross introduced its annual drive with a sox hop, which was held in the Wythe Gym. Shoes were checked along with coats, and everyone had a great time dancing in his socks. Holes in socks were just ignored.

After much hard practice and several night and morning rehearsals, the Talent Show, sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association, was finally ready for production on Friday night, November 16. The act that stole the show was a ballet by the football team.

Cadets commemorated Armistice Day this year by attending Monumental Episcopal Church in a group on the Sunday following Armistice Day. The football team and the cheerleaders also attended church together the Sunday before the Jayem and TeeJay game.

We turned to more serious activities in planning for the annual Thanksgiving assembly. Following tradition, homerooms filled the auditorium stage with Thanksgiving baskets to be given to Sheltering Arms Hospital.

About the first of December everyone began counting the days until Christmas, and we were no exception. Many of us had part-time jobs in department stores to make some extra money to buy Christmas gifts. The Literary Society took on a job too. But theirs was somewhat different. They acted as Santa Claus to an underprivileged little girl, outfitting her with skirt, blouse, and sweater. Nor were toys forgotten. There was a doll, a doll stroller, and an assortment of games.

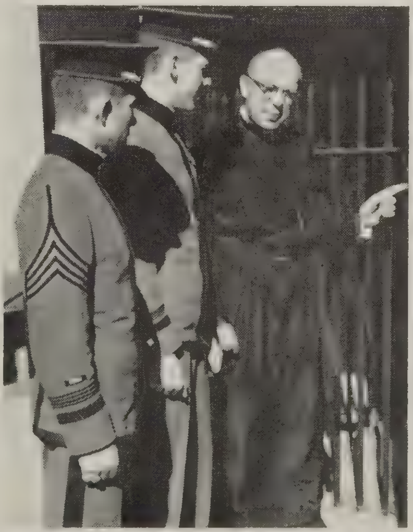
Electing someone to play the part of Mary, the Mother of Christ, in the seniors' annual Christmas pageant was another of our Christmas jobs. Three of the four girls nominated for the part portrayed angels. Joseph and the shepherds were chosen by the planning committee. The pageant was truly inspiring, as it revealed to us the true meaning of Christmas.

During the week before Christmas we decorated a Christmas tree in the main hall of the John Marshall building and sang carols around the tree each morning, filling the halls of the building with Christmas spirit.

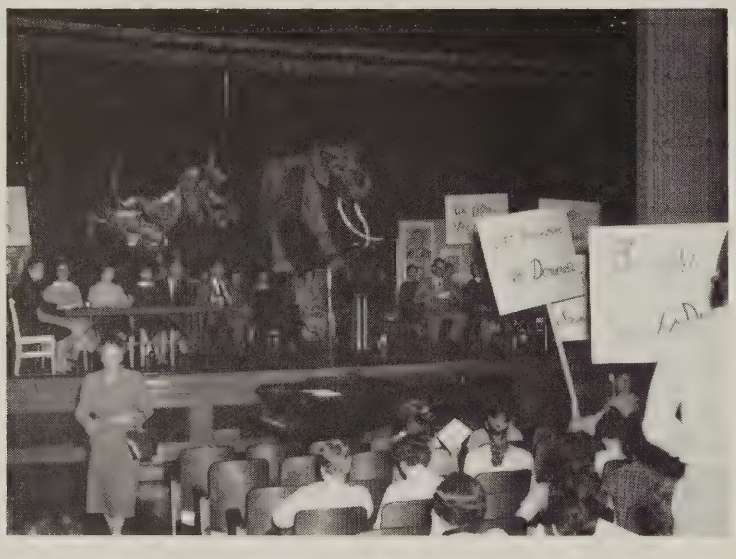
That's me, Eloise.

Happy Birthday, Mr. Locker.



Commemorating Armistice Day.

Make that kick, make that kick!



Democrat? Republican?

Our festivities before the holidays ended with the cadet figure. All the girls, swirling in their white laces and ruffles, wore corsages of red roses, and the boys wore the usual white mess jacket. Couples moved easily into each figure, forming a star, a heart with an arrow through it, three diamonds, and ending with the sword arch.

Nearly everyone had settled down to earth and recuperated from Santa Claus and the holidays when we returned to school on January 2. Days slipped by, and that dreaded exam week came before we knew it. Surprisingly enough, it held a real treat for us. Our class was given permission to attend the second inauguration of President Eisenhower in Washington during the middle of exam week.

Winter Wonderland was the very appropriate theme for the Junior-Senior prom this year, for several days before the prom, Richmond was covered with a white blanket of snow. The theme accorded well with everyone's spirits. The winners of the Who's Who for the February class were announced at the prom, and the class presented a gift to their sponsor.

Graduation! Yes, all the work, worry, and homework came to a climax for the high seniors on Monday night, January 28. After receiving that long awaited diploma, they celebrated at a party given for them at Tom Tom's.

Work made easy by a patient teacher.

Jayem sparkles and glistens in the snow.

What more could a hungry person ask for?

A fight to the finish.

On sponsor's day five sponsors stood proudly on the athletic field as all the members of their companies pinned the company colors on them during the ceremonies. The hop, usually held on the night after sponsor's day, had been held previously during the fall term because of the rain.

A peep into classrooms at any time during the term found everyone hard at work. The homemaking class produced some good seamstresses and good cooks, while the mechanical drawing class offered potential draftsmen. Every class every day brought us nearer to our goal—graduation!

"Smile pretty" was a familiar refrain to all of us when we had our pictures taken for the annual. Having our caps and gowns fitted was another rite associated with graduation.

April showers may bring May flowers, but to us they meant that May Day festivities were just around the corner. The May Court queen and princesses, dressed in true spring colors, made a beautiful picture. The Girls' Athletic Association and the gym classes provided entertainment for the court. The theme of the program was "Roamin' Holiday," and dances and skits were given to some of the popular songs.

March 17 marked the beginning of a wonderful week-end for 45 seniors. Amid the hustle and bustle of New York City, we spent a fun packed week-end sight-seeing, riding subways, blinking at bright lights, and gazing at sky-scrappers. The trip was sponsored by homeroom 104, with several teachers and two parents as our chaperons.

When we returned from New York we also returned to our final exams. The end of our senior year was drawing near. We were busy exchanging calling cards, addressing graduation invitations and signing annuals—signing annuals??? This is where our story ends. Congratulations and best wishes to all!

Her big moment!

Congratulations!

May Day

April Showers may bring May flowers, but to Marshallites they mean that May Day is just around the corner.

Once again the Girls' Athletic Association and the girls' Gym classes sponsored this annual event.

The May Queen, Joan Bishop, reigned over the festivities with her court on the beautiful and sunny day, May 1. Her majesty and the court took their places on the front steps to the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance."

"Roamin' Holiday" was the theme of the pageant, and it took the audience around the world in twenty minutes.

As the lovely strands of "Canadian Sunset" were played, the first-period Gym class gave their interpretation of the song by way of a modern dance.

The next stop on the program was Siam. With the "March of the Siamese Children" playing in the background, the fourth-period Gym class danced to its rhythm.

Gay Paris was the setting of the dance by the second-period. The girls wore French berets, while they danced happily, in French fashion, over the lawn, to the ever popular song, "People of Paris."

From France the scene shifted South of the border to Mexico, where the third-period gave a Mexican hat dance.

Then to the Pacific with the fifth-period for a "Hawaiian War Chant" and a Hawaiian dance.

"Ballin' the Jack" brought the court back to the good old United States for the final performance, which was given by the sixth-period gym class.

The last event on the program was the winding of the May Pole; each dance represented by the bright ribbons wound around the pole.

One of the largest sections of our yearbook includes the activities of twenty-six clubs and organizations.

Each organization holds weekly or bi-weekly meetings, at which time projects and programs are planned.

This year the Forum Club, striving to create a better understanding of elections and the way our government operates, held a campaign rally as its project. Mr. J. Vaughn Gary and Mr. Roy E. Cabell, Democratic and Republican candidates for Congress respectively, addressed the student body to further interest in this project.

With so many organizations, there is one to appeal to everyone. Many fields such as science, politics, religion, literature, and athletics are represented.

Through participation in these organizations and their projects, students are given many opportunities to develop leadership and friendship.

Our John Marshall Student Association is headed by pupils elected for their efficiency and reliability. The executive committee meets twice a month; homeroom presidents and commissions, once a month. Through these representatives every student has an opportunity to voice his opinion.

In the spring election the student body made John Godsey president and Sylvia McJilton vice-president.

During the football season the Student Association sold school pencils; sponsored pep rallies each morning before school to help increase school spirit; sponsored a float for the Jayem-Teejay game; chartered buses for out-of-town games.

At the beginning of last term, the Student Association held a special orientation assembly for new students coming to John Marshall. New students were carried on a tour of the buildings, met homeroom teachers, and had their many questions answered by "big sisters."

The Student Association obtained permission to have two recreation rooms; one in the John Marshall Building, the other in George Wythe, both of which will be ready in September.

Members of the February and June graduating classes, who have faithfully served the Student Association, leave their best wishes to the new members of the Student Association of John Marshall.

The Forum Club of John Marshall is designed to make citizens of our youths by keeping them in close contact with world affairs. The club not only discusses current events but also presents many skits and plays for enjoyment and information.

The outstanding project of the Forum Club in the fall term was the Citizenship Rally Day held October 31. The Honorable Mr. J. V. Gary and Mr. Roy E. Cabell, Jr., both candidates for Congress, were welcomed on the portico of the school at 12:15 P. M. Government classes helped with the program, and their chosen members acted as a welcoming committee. After the welcome on the portico, the two candidates went to the auditorium and gave their respective views in a speech. The art class helped to make many banners for the occasion and articles in Richmond newspapers attested to its importance.

The Christian Youth League, an interdenominational group, open to all John Marshall students, was organized for the purpose of making Christ more real in the students' daily lives. The club seeks to promote Christian love, friendship, tolerance, sympathy, service, and understanding of others.

Meetings are held during B and C recesses each Friday, with programs of worship, study, and fellowship provided. Weekly meetings have included movies, speakers, lively discussions, a play, and participation by individual members, with devotion and music every week. The club also maintains two prayer rooms for private meditation at school.

Membership during the past year has exceeded the one hundred mark, with at least nine different denominations represented.

Service to the patients and nurses at Sheltering Arms Hospital has been a chief project of the Christian Youth League for some years. Each school day, two or more girls go to help at the hospital. Many have a regular day each week to work, while others are able to go only at certain intervals. A total of twenty-five girls have worked at different times.

The annual union banquet, at which time new officers are installed, has proved a hugh success each year. Christian Youth Leagues all over the city participate in this affair, with new clubs cropping up each year.

The purpose of the John Marshall Parent-Teacher-Student Association is to bring parents, teachers, and students into a closer relationship with the school, the home, and the community.

PTSA study groups, organized by Miss Frances L. Bray, discussed the following topics: Bridging the Gap from Junior High to Senior High School, from Senior High School to College, and from Senior High School to Work.

The PTSA held one big meeting each term, giving the parents an opportunity to acquaint themselves with the school and its curriculum.

It was decided that the Grays' Armory would be used for basketball. Finances for the PTSA were on a free will basis.

The spring meeting brought to a close for the year the PTSA and executive committee meetings.

Quill and Scroll

Sponsor
MISS MARY G. LAMBERT

A quill and scroll have signified literary and creative effort for hundreds of years. It is very appropriate, therefore, that this International Honor Society for High School Journalists should be so named. The badge of the society is a scroll with a quill diagonally across it, bearing the name and these letters, I.H.S.H.S.J. This badge is symbolic of the painstaking efforts of today to record the events and thoughts of their time.

According to the national constitution, the members of Quill and Scroll must be chosen from the students who meet the requirements at the time of their election. To become members of the John Marshall Chapter, students must meet the following requirements: (1) They must be of senior standing. (2) They must be in the upper third of their class. (3) They must have done superior work in some phase of journalistic or creative work. (4) They must be recommended by the adviser of publications. (5) They must be approved by the executive secretary of the society. Students may achieve these aims through work on The Monocle, The Marshallite, or The Record.

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of this society to which I have been elected, striving in every way by word and deed to make its ideals the ideals of my school and of my life."

This is the pledge taken by each new member of the National Honor Society. The John Marshall Chapter now consists of 35 members and Miss Wilhelmina Wright, faculty sponsor of the chapter.

The ideals spoken of in the pledge are symbolized by the badge of the society. This badge consists of a shield and torch, bearing the words, National Honor Society, and the letters C. S. L. S. These letters stand for the four principal ideals of the society, character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

To become a member of the John Marshall Chapter, a student must meet the following requirements: (1) He must be of senior standing. (2) He must have at least a B average. (3) He must be approved by the faculty and the members on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

The John Marshall Chapter has just completed its nineteenth year. It was organized in 1939 by Dr. Patrick Ely, who became the first faculty sponsor. Miss Wright became the sponsor in 1946. Since its organization, over 800 members have been initiated into the society.

This year the society has tried to have as many outside speakers as possible to enrich the lives of its members. On Valentine's Day the society enjoyed a special treat. Mrs. Fred B. Dixon spoke to the group and later joined them for refreshments.

In the spring a luncheon was given for the members.

The Honor Society has thoroughly enjoyed its work and good times with Miss Wright.

On the third Friday of each month, the Don Juan Club holds its meeting in room 303W with Miss Marie Rooney, the club sponsor.

The club motto, "Adelante, siempre adelante," meaning "Forward, always forward," is an inspiration to the sixty members.

The members of the club are students who are studying, or who studied, Spanish and wish to practice the language and learn more about the Spanish-speaking people, their customs, and their country.

During the year, the club had the pleasure of meeting and being entertained by several Spanish Americans, among whom were Ruben Gutierrez from Cuba and Julio Munoz from Mexico. Señor Munoz brought his guitar and played and sang many Spanish songs for the group.

At the Christmas party the members had much fun breaking the traditional pinata and gathering up the "goodies" that dropped from it. The group sang many Christmas carols in Spanish, and enjoyed, especially a duet by two "señoritas bonitas."

On our annual trip this year we visited the Jamestown Festival and Williamsburg, all of us enjoying fun and good fellowship.

Another interesting and informative program was one based on the $64,000 Question. It was called "Cuanto Sabe Usted?" The categories for the questions were Spain and Spanish America. Both the contestants and the audience received much from this, either in prizes, information, or just fun.

Each year the Don Juan Club helps to sponsor the annual Foreign Language Banquet at the Hotel John Marshall. This year it was held on May the tenth in the Virginia Room and was a very gala affair, with songs and skits, speeches and good food. There were nearly five hundred foreign language students present. We were especially proud of our club's president, who made one of the speeches of welcome in Spanish.

In these and many other ways the Don Juan Club has helped to increase the interest of our students in the study of Spanish.

The "Sans Souci" is a club designed for students of French who are interested in learning more about the French people, their language and customs. Anyone taking French is eligible to become a member. The club meets only once a month at recess on the second Friday. The name "Sans Souci" (without care) symbolizes a carefree group having fun while obtaining an education.

Besides the required dues, the club adds to its treasury by paper drives, which have proved fairly successful.

During the past year, the club was fortunate in having many fine programs. At several meetings the members participated in brief French skits. A French exchange student, who was studying at one of the local institutions, spoke to the club in French and English at one meeting, helping both himself and club members.

For the Christmas meeting, the officers planned a gay party. Delicious refreshments , including wonderful cookies made by the sponsor, Miss Robertson, were served during the meeting. Everyone sang Christmas carols in French, and a member of the club sang a solo.

The John Marshall Orchestra, consisting of twenty-six members and directed by Albert L. Stoutamire, has participated in many various activities this year. Among them were playing for the Community Chest, P.T.S.A. meeting, and graduation exercises.

Each year everyone looks forward to the annual State String Orchestra and All-State Band. This year eight string players attended the fourteenth annual State String Orchestra at Washington and Lee High School in Arlington, and two players of wind instruments attended the All-State Band at Hermitage High School. Everyone who participated gained a great deal from the experience.

In May the main performance of the year, a concert, was presented by the choir and orchestra for all parents and students who were interested. As usual, the June graduation brought the term to a close.

The Choir, representing John Marshall at school and community functions, meets daily. Members are chosen on a basis of seniority and ability, and the need for balance in the parts sung.

During 1956-57 the Choir sang at the Community Chest and P.T.S.A. programs. It recorded a grace used in both cafeterias, and made TV appearances on both WXEX and WRVA. It participated in the Jamestown Celebration pageant and baccalaureate and commencement services in February and June. It caroled for the Governor, Dr. Willett, the mayor, and in the halls of John Marshall. It sang for the Thanksgiving service, Brotherhood Week, and the Easter program. Other engagements included the spring concert, singing at Randolph-Macon College, the Optimist Club, and a meeting of the National Association of Internal Revenue Employees.

The Marshall Singers, a mixed voice ensemble from the Choir, appeared on the following programs: Red Cross, VEA superintendent's meeting, Kiwanis Club; Thalhimer's window, Education Week, the Literary Society.

The Marshallettes, a girls' and boys' ensemble, are choir members. They sang in the spring concert.

The Girls' Chorus, composed of choir members and other talented students, sang at Randolph-Macon College and in the spring concert.

The Distributive Education Club is a professional organization open to all students who are majoring in Distributive Education. A D.E. student works on a part-time co-operative retail training program, attending school part of the day and working in distributive occupations (retail, wholesale, and service) a minimum of fifteen hours a week. The in-store work experience is considered a laboratory exercise related to classroom instruction. Salesmanship, advertising, retail math, human relations, stockkeeping, speech and merchandise information are among the topics covered in the classroom.

The John Marshall D.E. Club is a member of the Distributive Education Clubs of Virginia, which have more than sixty school memberships. In turn, all of the Virginia clubs belong to DECA—The Distributive Education Clubs of America.

This year the members of the club attended the District Conference, which was held in Richmond. There were various competitive contests, including a demonstration judging contest, a job interview contest, and a window-display judging contest. Carol Rich, of John Marshall, won the job interview contest. The annual state convention was held in Richmond at the John Marshall Hotel. We sent two delegates to this convention.

Perhaps the club is best typified by its diamond-shaped pin and emblem. The four points of the diamond represent vocational competence, economic literacy, social intelligence, and leadership. The wrapped package in the center of the pin signifies a job well done.

Vocational Office Training Class

Homeroom President............BETTY SCRUGGS

Vocational Office Training is a coordinated work experience program offered to seniors who intend to work in an office after graduation. VOT is designed as a fitting climax for students enrolled in the Business Department. It is possible to earn two points a semester; one for classroom instruction, one for actual work experience.

Units of instruction in the classroom are most practical, and include the following: filing, grooming, use of adding-listing machines, duplicators, comptometers, rotary calculators, electric typewriters, transcribing machines (Edison Voice-Writer, Dictaphone, SoundScriber, Comptometer, Permaflux Scribe), and employer-employee relations. The development of character traits is stressed.

Students are required to work a minimum of fifteen hours a week in an actual office. Since VOT students have proved themselves to be very desirable employees, there are many jobs available for our students. Seniors in this program are employed as clerk-stenographers, clerk-typists, record clerks, comptometer operators, bookkeepers, sorting clerks, mail clerks, telephone operators, and bank messengers.

The advantages of enrolling in a work experience program cannot be over estimated. There is no substitute for experience, and VOT students gain occupational orientation, which is of priceless benefit to them. The gap which exists between school and a future job is a wide one. It is much easier to bridge that gap while a pupil is still in school and has the help of a teacher-coordinator to assist whenever necessary. The teacher-coordinator visits each student on the job at regular intervals in order to become thoroughly familiar with all job duties assigned to each student.

VOT seniors this year are employed in banks, insurance offices, law offices, retail store offices, truck companies, telephone company offices, credit offices, farm cooperative offices, real estate offices, government offices, and in various offices of the Richmond Public Schools.

Our motto is "It pays in many ways, to earn while you learn!"

The Diversified Occupations Training Program at John Marshall is designed primarily to offer select high school students an opportunity to prepare themselves for a specific trade or industrial occupation of their own choice through part-time employment while still in school.

The program operates through a cooperative agreement with employers, students, parents, and the school. Only students in the junior or senior years are eligible. A student meeting the requirements for entrance is permitted to select employment in one of several approved occupations. Employers cooperate with the school, serving as the student's training agency. Much care and thought are given by the co-ordinator and counselor to the satisfactory placement of each student. The student then receives training in the occupation of his choice under actual working conditions, devoting a minimum of three hours a day, five days a week, to work on the job. The student devotes three hours a day to school work, receiving one hour of instruction specifically related to his job and two hours of instruction in subjects required for graduation. Credit is granted toward graduation for satisfactory work on the job. In addition, the learner is paid a fair hourly wage by his employer.

The Future Business Leaders of America is made up of students enrolled in business courses. This organization promotes interest in business and prepares students for work in office occupations.

The John Marshall chapter has won the National Office Management Association trophy for being the most outstanding chapter in the state of Virginia for the year 1955-56. It has been an Honor Chapter every year since it was chartered.

Every business student should be a member of FBLA. In the follow-up study completed this year by our chapter, one of our former members said: "FBLA puts the finishing touches on classroom training. Membership in FBLA develops in each of us initiative, leadership, reliability, and a sincere interest in the world of business."

Again this year, John Marshall students competed with other FBLA members at Mary Washington College, where their exhibit (pictured on this page) and scrapbook won first place awards. Norma Foster was elected Regional President. The state convention was held in Richmond; the national convention in Dallas, Texas.

The Future Teachers of America is a national organization composed of students who have met the necessary qualifications for membership, and who have a genuine interest in teaching.

The Charles Anthony Club tries to help each member to become better acquainted with himself and the teaching profession. It explores the many phases of education and the problems that face our educational system.

On the first day of school, F.T.A. members were busy putting into practice the Big Sister program. We helped relieve some of the strain on the homeroom teacher by conducting tours of various parts of the building, explaining school activities, taking rolls, and numerous other tasks.

We invited many visitors to eat lunch with us and see the film, "A Desk for Billie," which was an inspiration to all.

One of our most enjoyable experiences was having Mr. Mooney, former adviser of the Monocle, as guest speaker to talk to us about his ups and downs in the profession.

One program was devoted to role playing, which portrayed the teacher and the problem child, with members playing both parts. Each teacher tried to see if he could solve the problem.

Delta Kappa Gamma, Beta Chapter, invited us to its March meeting, at which we had a delightful time and met many interesting people.

During the year many of us served as ushers and guides at the Virginia Education Association meeting. We were also hostesses at teachers' meetings, and we participated on panels at various times.

The Nurses of Tomorrow Club, which is a chapter of the Future Nurses' Club of America, has now been organized at John Marshall for two years.

The purposes of the club are to promote the idea of how important health is to the individual and the community, to encourage girls to find out what nursing requires and what it offers, and how to help them decide wisely about professional and practical nursing as their career.

Pins, given by the Richmond Nurses' Auxiliary and bearing the initials FNC and a guard with the year, are awarded at the annual banquet to those girls who have attended 75 per cent of the meetings.

The club's project this year was volunteer work in the Central Supply at Medical College. Two of the girls went one day each week to make bandages and cotton swabs. All the girls did a find job, and deserve grateful recognition.

Mrs. Sutphin and Mrs. Masters, members of the Richmond Nurses' Auxiliary who helped organize the club, with the help of Mrs. Gordon, school nurse, arrange for guest speakers, movies, and field trips for the meetings.

The programs for each meeting are designed to acquaint the girls with the various branches of nursing. Guest speakers this year were Dr. Mills, the psychologist for the Richmond Public Schools; Mrs. John Carl, who gave an interesting talk on "Opportunities open to you as a graduate nurse"; and Dr. Talley, who talked about Radiology as an X-ray Technician.

The girls made a field trip to the new Richmond Memorial Hospital, where they enjoyed a guided tour with the Assistant Superintendent of Nurses through the wards, emergency room, operating room, delivery room, therapy room, and the doctors' and nurses' lounging quarters.

The girls always strive to uphold the motto of the club, "For a future that's bright, be a leader in white."

Drama Class

Through the efforts of Mrs. Charlotte Wheeler DeCourcy and Miss Eva Branch, the class of Drama became a regular part of the speech course in 1938. Room 209 is equipped with a small stage, curtains, lights, a storage room for furniture, and cabinets for small properties and costumes. A book box and file contain the proper number of scripts of nearly 150 plays from which to choose class productions. After a short course in the history of drama, every member of the class is in at least four short plays during the term, all rehearsing at once in various parts of the room and on the stage. For the presentation of each play, one day is set aside. Each cast issues a formal invitation to another class, meeting at the same period, to be the audience; and the play is presented, each member of the group being responsible for the committee work necessary to produce a play, such as: costumes, lights, stage, props, make up, set, and bulletin board.

The purposes of this course are the improvement of speech, and practice in leadership, cooperation, independence, pose, responsibility.

Each student keeps a record of the activities of the course in a notebook with pictures and descriptions of costumes through the ages.

Some of the one-act plays used as class work are The Valiant, The Dear Departed, Always a Prisoner, Never Too Old, Avertones, When the Whirlwind Blows, Holding a Husband, Two Crooks and a Lady, Mayor and the Manicure, Wisdom Teeth, The Stranger, Letters, The Devil on Stilts.

Library Staff

This year thirty-one library assistants have been giving valuable service to fellow students and the school. All students who serve on the library staff must meet certain standards as to grades and library duties, which include charging and slipping books, collecting fines, filing, shelving, and many other activities. Meetings are held periodically, at which time library problems are discussed.

Members of the staff feel that their daily tasks in the library have aided them personally in acquiring a greater knowledge of books and libraries. Assistants have realized the satisfaction of finding their way around the library and helping others to become familiar with it. Each assistant is on a rotating schedule, so that he receives well-rounded training in all library techniques.

Assistants not only work—they enjoy it! At present two members of the library staff are seriously considering librarianship as a profession because of their increasing interest as members of the library group.

The Key Club of John Marshall High School is a service club composed of thirty-five boys and a sweetheart chosen by the members from the 12H grade each semester.

The club is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Richmond, and Mr. James C. Harwood serves as faculty advisor.

The objectives of the club are to develop initiative and leadership, to provide experience in living and working together, to serve the school and community, to cooperate with the school principal and faculty, and to prepare for useful citizenship.

The Key Club year had been highlighted with many activities in 1956-57. It helped decorate for the football games and also sponsored a pep rally before the Teejay-Jayem game.

The Father and Son Banquet, which was held on March 1, and the Mother's Day program were both big events that made each member proud that he belonged to the club.

A joint program with the Key Clubs of Thomas Jefferson and Highland Springs for the Kiwanis Club in observance of National Key Club Week was made outstanding by honoring Mr. Harwood, faculty advisor, for ten years of service to the organization. The Kiwanis Club presented him with a silver tray; the John Marshall Club gave him a booklet containing letters from the past presidents of the club telling him of the inspiring work that he had done.

The club again this year sponsored an assembly on Brotherhood with Dr. Sterling W. Brown, Executive Vice-President of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, as speaker.

Another of the year's highlights was the annual Capital District Convention, which was held at Old Point Comfort at the Hotel Chamberlin. Various activities took place at the convention, including talks by the mayors of that district.

The purpose of the Literary Society is to stimulate in its members an interest in good books, movies, the theater and television. This year the group was made up of thirty-seven students, all recommended by their English teachers.

During the year the Society was very active, and had many interesting and varied programs, ranging from talks and slides to programs in which everyone took part. Reviews of current books and special movies and television programs were given at the meetings.

On two occasions, the group had the opportunity of hearing interesting accounts of travel in foreign lands. Miss Mary Montague, English teacher, spoke to the Society about her trip to Great Britain during the summer. Carolyn Williams, a member of the Literary Society, showed the group slides of her trip to Europe as a representative of the American Junior Red Cross.

Three members of the Society spoke on library facilities in the vicinity at one of the meetings. At the last meeting in December, a Christmas party was held.

On March 8, the Society had the privilege of hearing choral readings on "Virginia's Heritage," presented by the Richmond-Jamestown Festival Committee.

The group sponsored two special projects this year. The members all contributed time and money in order to play Santa Claus to a needy child at Christmas. Throughout the year, various members visited the Crippled Children's Hospital on Wednesdays to read and talk to the children there.

The Girls' Athletic Association is one of the most active clubs at John Marshall, and is opened to all girls who enjoy sports. The club offers a variety of sports for after-school pleasure throughout the year. In the fall, the members of the GAA participate in archery, horseback riding, bowling and swimming. In the winter the girls enjoy tennis, horseback riding, and archery.

In addition to all these sports, the GAA presents a fashion show and a talent show each year. The theme of this year's talent show was called "Imagination," because it featured a little boy's thoughts as he wandered through a toy shop.

The biggest project of each year for the GAA is the "May Day" festival held in the spring. "Roamin' Holiday" was the theme of the annual May Day festivities this year.

The Girls' Athletic Association climaxes each school year with a gala picnic.

"Monocle Day."

Fourteen times a year this sign is placed on the Press Room door of 104. To the students, it simply means four pages of printed matter to read during study period; to the staff members, it symbolizes the successful end to a difficult task.

During the summer, the staff deeply regretted hearing that The Monocle's adviser, Mr. Ernest W. Mooney, Jr., would not return to John Marshall in September.

However, all will agree that a better person could not have been secured to fill this position than our present adviser, Miss Mary G. Lambert, who has given faithfully of her time and talents to maintain the high standards of The Monocle.

In both the fall and spring term there were seventeen 100% homerooms, besides the Corps of Cadets.

The staff was filled with pride when its co-exchange editor, Sara Shuman, received the $100 award from The Freedom's Foundation for her editorial on Veteran's Day.

This year has been one of hard work; but no staff member would trade the feeling that comes when "Monocle Day" is hung on the door.

The Science Club, one of John Marshall's newer student organizations, had its small beginnings in the mind of Bernard Coleman in January, 1956. But the idea did not remain small, for Bernard shared his thoughts with Mrs. Mary J. Warinner and Tommy Lee. Much work behind the scenes went on before the first official meeting on January 9, 1956. There was a large turnout for this meeting, and Mrs. Warinner and Miss Eloise M. Davis, the co-sponsors, presented plans for the future.

Like a contagious germ, the idea reached many would-be scientists. After two meetings the club was going in full swing with the following officers: Shirley Burke, president; Tommy Lee, vice-president; Jean Withers, secretary; and Wayne Pratali, treasurer.

The club's purpose is to interest students in taking more science and give those who are especially interested in it an opportunity to work and learn outside the classroom. To accomplish these goals, the club, an affiliate of Science Clubs of America through The Virginia Junior Academy of Science, has a varied program. This year it presented, in conjunction with the science classes, an annual three-day science show in physics, chemistry, and biology. For the meetings, speakers are secured to talk on a wide range of scientific subjects, films on engineering and scientific careers are shown, and sometimes the members give demonstrations. Field trips to tobacco factories, electric, telephone, and telegraph companies, Du Pont's rayon plant, and others draw the members closer together in after-school activities.

The following officers for this year have carried on the work begun in 1956: president, Tommy Lee; vice-president, Jean Withers; secretary, Dona Spencer; and treasurer, Norwyn Rowe. The new project of the Science Club is to have members of the organization lead discussions for the general science students to try to interest them in taking advanced science.

But along with the work comes the satisfaction of accomplishment and the annual picnic, the highlight of the year.

A revolution occurred this year at The Record headquarters. In accordance with the judges' remarks at Lexington, The Record was reduced in size. The cover is now flush with the pages, and the margins smaller. However, this does not affect the wordage.

Two years ago, The Record started the tradition of giving the Edgar Allan Poe Award to the student who makes the most outstanding contribution to the magazine. This cup is kept with other John Marshall trophies in the cases on the main floor. Each year the winner's name is engraved on the trophy.

Staff members are recommended by their English teachers. They meet each Monday after school in Room 114 to read, correct, and improve manuscripts submitted by Marshallites. Such manuscripts include poems, editorials, essays, and stories.

Marshallites have a wide variety to choose from among the departments, which include Editorials, Cadet Notes, Each in His Own Tongue, The Walrus Said, History of the Clubs, Reviews, Into the Unknown, and Exchanges.

John Marshall students have the privilege of bragging about their school magazine. It won the All-American Honor Rating at the National Scholastic Press Association for the years 1943, 1946, 1949, 1950, and 1955. In 1954 it won the first-place trophy at the Southern Interscholastic Press Association and in 1955 received a first place rating. Also in 1956, The Record received a first-place rating from the National Scholastic Press Association.

The staff gave a surprise birthday party for co-editor Sara Shuman this year at one of the meetings.

Sincere thanks and congratulations go to co-editors Frances Reynolds and Sara Shuman for their faithful and unending efforts to make the Record the best one yet. The members of the staff also wish to express their appreciation to their sponsor and faculty adviser, Mr. Walter F. Beverly, for his untiring efforts to promote our literary magazine, The Record.

Ever conscious of our pledge, "We believe in service for others in our own and other lands," our Junior Red Cross Council at John Marshall has engaged in activities in the community and around the world.

A new plan initiated to create interest in the fall enrollment used competition among buildings rather than rooms. With the theme, "Encircle the World with Friendship," each building that collected $25 could put a blue or white figure on the globe outside the Jayem office. A total of $342.50 was cellected.

November 1 was JRC red-letter day: it sponsored John Marshall's first sock hop. Tickets were $1.00 a couple and proceeds went to fill a school chest for children in Hungary.

This year John Marshall had more volunteers than ever before working at MCV and the Chapter House. They gave 648 hours of their time.

Each Thursday, Sam Kerneklian and his crew tied and stacked paper contributed from all of the rooms.

Carolyn Williams, president of the Jayem Council, participated in the 1956 JRC European Study-Visit Program.

The Marshallite

"Confusion—unlimited!" commented a student (Jim) as he passed 2C during the sixth period. Little did he know of what was actually being produced inside.

Glancing about the room, he heard typewriters clicking, groups talking; saw girls writing, someone filing cards.

Mary Wood, Marshallite editor, was giving a pep talk and directing the staff to work harder for a better annual.

Jim saw the big desk where the sponsor, Mrs. Burnett, was working diligently. Next to her sat Mr. Arnold, business advisor, totaling the amount from the ads brought in by the staff. Jim had heard that it was a pleasure to work with them because of the time and effort they devoted to making the annual successful.

Yes—there was confusion in 2C. But from it came an annual which captures a senior's highlights at Jayem.

John Marshall Cadet Alumni Association, Inc.

Fall Dinner Meeting

Usually members of the student body, particularly the Corps of Cadets, hear about the association only through one of its projects such as the memorial scholarship program.

There is another side to our group, however, of equal importance—the promotion of good fellowship among our members.

Regular meetings of the organization are in themselves a time of real reminiscing, an opportunity to be with the old gang again.

The annual dance and outing always draw a large group, with the "dates" and wives holding the spotlight. The order of the day begins with the usual questions: "How many kids do you have, Jack?" or "Where did you get that bay window?"

It's quite likely that an individual class may hold a banquet all its own.

But no matter what the event or the place, the first question asked is an enthusiastic and familiar one:

"How's Jayem these days?"

John Marshall Summer School

Summer schools were opened in Richmond in 1911, but it was not until 1932 that all summer school classes offered in the city were held at John Marshall and tuition was charged for each student attending. The John Marshall Summer School offers opportunitities from sixth through twelfth grade subjects, which provide enrichment for the regular program, acceleration toward graduation, or improvement in the mastery of courses partially completed. In addition to students in these grades, postgraduates, college students, and other adults have discovered that eight weeks of the long vacation may bring interesting and profitable returns. In 1956, more than 1,700 students from 86 schools enrolled for the summer session, with the majority of those enrolled taking new work.

Going to school is a daytime chore for the John Marshall student of 1957. For many an oldtimer—Class of '50, say, or '40, or even '20—it has become a nighttime pleasure. During the past eleven years approximately 1,000 Jayem graduates have enrolled in the John Marshall Evening School.

In addition to that, more than 360 Teejay diploma holders have joined their one-time rivals in the further pursuit of learning at the gaily lighted building in the backyard of Chief Justice Marshall's home. During this same period some 2,700 graduates of other high schools have taken classes by candlelight, so to speak, after a hard day's work—in the very same classrooms in which day students thought they were having such a rough time.

This sort of thing has been going on almost from the first day John Marshall High School opened its doors. In fact, it was only two years after that momentous date (in 1911, to be exact) that Mr. W. C. Locker and two teachers started the John Marshall Night High School. Before that first session was over, the enrollment had soared to almost 1,200 students, and a few more teachers, to be sure. Ever since then the Evening School has been a vital, dynamic factor in the adult education program of our city.

In addition to the 4,060 or more high school students who have enrolled in the John Marshall Evening School during the past eleven years, there has been no end of students who for one reason or another have not had the chance to graduate from high school. A number of these, lacking only a few points, have earned sufficient credits by evening study to obtain their diplomas from John Marshall or Thomas Jefferson or some other high school.

John Marshall at night is not a dull, dark, dismal pile of bricks and mortar. It is a structure pulsing with life, energy, and enthusiasm. Since 1946 Mr. Oscar H. Parrish, well known to our day students, has been principal of the John Marshall Evening School. His secretary, the charming young lady who presides over Room 111½, is Mrs. Joyce Woolcott, a graduate of John Marshall, Class of '50.

"Night lights and busy minds"

W. C. LOCKER

Founder and Principal

(1911-1946)

"Every institution," said Ralph Waldo Emerson, "is the lengthened shadow of a single individual." This may not be quite true in the case of old "J.M.," which, in the dim and distant past, evolved from the former Richmond High School, but, in respect to John Marshall Evening School, Mr. Emerson's epigram is strictly true. It is no exaggeration to say that this great school is the lengthened shadow of W. Clyde Locker.

John Marshall High School opened in September, 1909. Two years later, October 16, 1911, the John Marshall Night High School began its first term under the principalship of Mr. Locker.

Some 85,000 students and hundreds of teachers passed under the influence of Mr. Locker during his thirty-five year principalship. What this great army of people has thought of him is appropriately recorded in the plaque presented to him upon his retirement, a reproduction of which is printed below.

This Testimonial of Appreciation is presented to

Willis Clyde Locker

Director of Adult Education and Writing
Richmond Public Schools
1911~1946

by the Faculty of the John Marshall Night High School

Founder of John Marshall Night High School which activity led to pioneering in other fields of adult education

Counselor for young people instilling in them ambition for success in life

Human Engineer with a rare understanding of people and their potentialities

He has become the personification of his forty-nine point program with which he worked to build character and create efficiency in the 125,000 men and women who looked to the institutions he created for guidance.

Thus in his every activity he lives his philosophy

"That life is a mirror of King and Slave
'Tis what you are and do;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you."

Given this 11th day of April, 1946

This scroll was presented to Mr. Locker upon his retirement from Evening School in 1946.

John Marshall has long been proud of the Corps of Cadets, and with good reason. Through the years the Corps has brought city, state, and nation-wide recognition by winning many honors. It teaches the cadets leadership, develops their bodies, quickens their minds, and encourages discipline.

In the summer of 1956 the Corps was re-organized into one battalion of three companies, instead of the former six. Under the direction of the commandant, the officers organized the companies and the staff. On the first day of the new term, rifle cadets were assigned to their new companies, opening a new chapter in the history of the corps.

Today, as in the past, the Corps signifies Duty, Honor, Country.

The Honor Court

The honor system of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets is designed to instill in the individual cadet a true sense of the Corps' motto, "Duty, Honor, Country," and to increase each cadet's desire to develop self-respect, pride, and a general consideration for the rights and welfare of others—vital factors in the forming of real character.

In order to achieve this goal, each cadet must resolve to implant these standards within himself. Should he fail to do so and encroach upon, or appear to violate, his honor, the Honor Court meets and administers punishment, accordingly. The Court is composed of all commanders, the Adjutant, and others whom the Court sees fit to elect by unanimous decision, the total membership not exceeding thirteen.

The Honor Court considers any case not covered by the Rules or Standards, in which the honor or character of a cadet, or the honor or well-being of the Corps as a whole is in any way involved, and makes the final decision.

First Row: Malcolm B. Pulley, Sergeant-at-Arms; Charles J. Blackman, Judge Advocate; Andrew J. Peay, Jr., President; Lance H. Strickland, Secretary; John W. Martin, Jr.; Joseph C. Lyne, Vice-President; Charles T. Garrison.

The General Committee

Although the principal purpose of the Honor Court is to try cases of honor violations, the Court also works with the General Committee to make the honor system successful. The group is composed of all commanders and the individual officers of each class. The General Committee does not try honor cases at hand, but instead tries to prevent any honor violations by giving the proper instruction to each recruit class, and additional instruction of all classes when deemed necessary.

If there is any disagreement about the definitions of the standards of the Corps, the General Committee decides the issue. Cadets failing to live up to the standards of conduct and appearance are called to account by the group, whose duty it is to see that standards are enforced. The reputation of being gentlemen which members of the Corps enjoy is the result of this system.

Members of the General Committee must help accomplish their purpose by personal example, displaying proper qualifications before receiving membership. It is also the duty of each member of the corps to report all violations of the standards, foregoing all company allegiance whenever it would conflict with the purpose of the General Committee. The lesser duties of the committee are the enforcement of class privileges and new cadet restrictions.

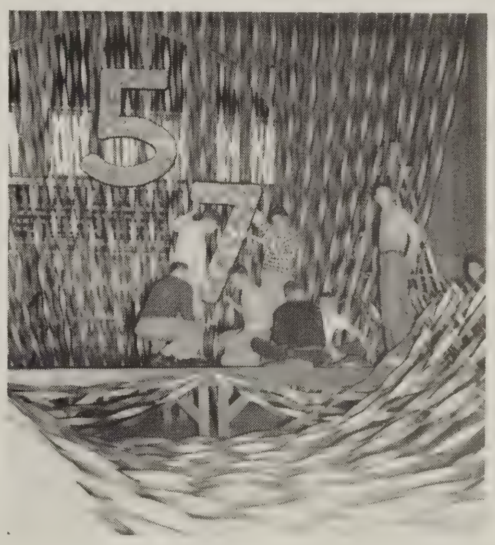
The Hop Committee



The Hop Committee is a voluntary group composed of cadets from all companies and all drills. Each job that goes into making the Hop a success is taken care of by a separate committee. Each of these is supervised by a chairman.

The big problem is the debatable question of the colors of the decorations and a plan for the arrangements of them. These are decided by the vote of the group. Next the various committees plan and carry out each phase of their assigned duties.

When all the tasks have been completed, the haphazard, hectic turmoil turns into an orderly, beautiful picture. The cadets who worked so hard and put so much time in preparing for this big event receive no reward other than the satisfaction in the feeling that they have done their part in making the ball a notable success.

RICHMOND GRAYS

Our athletic staff at John Marshall has developed one of the best athletic departments in the state.

For boys the athletic schedule includes football, baseball, and basketball; for girls, hockey, softball and basketball.

Many honors were won by the Justices throughout the year. Although they did not become championship teams, we are proud of their achievements.

This year's record of girls' sports was exceptionally good. Until the last game, the hockey team was undefeated.

Winning helps the morale of the team — but good sportsmanship helps the morale of the whole school. Let's practice good sportsmanship always.

Rideout to Schwartz for a touchdown.

Although the John Marshall football team ended the season with a 1-7-1 record, most Marshallites felt that they had had a successful season because of the 6-6 tie with Thomas Jefferson.

The Big Blue team was led by co-captains Wayne Lauterbach and Mel Rideout.

With the Justices' 19-0 victory over Lane High School, of Charlottesville, the team showed strength and improvement in both offensive and defensive play. After completing a 12-yard pass, Tony Berry dropped the ball just before crossing the goal line. Billy Schwartz, thinking fast, fell on the ball after it had bounced into the end zone and scored the first touchdown. A pep talk given by the coaches during half-time lifted the boys' spirits, for two touchdowns were scored in the third quarter by G. A. Waymack and Kenny Newsom. The only extra point of the game was made by Waymack, who ran for the conversion. Because of the outstanding defensive play of Billy Graham and the line, the Justices held Lane at a -7 yards on the ground.

The Blue Devils, of Hopewell, settled for a 14-13 win over the improving Justices on November 2. Freddy Pace scored the first touchdown on a 32-yard pass interception and run-back. Kenny Newsom cracked over for the second touchdown with Mel Rideout scoring the conversion.

On November 24, John Marshall kicked off to T. J. to start the 26-annual high-school football classic. During the third quarter, Mel Rideout completed a 24-yard pass to Billy Schwartz to tie the score. A penalty against Tee Jay gave Jayem two tries for the extra point, but both were unsuccessful. Thus, the final score was 6-6.

BASKETBALL

Coach Sattler Anderson started his first year as basketball coach at John Marshall with the team winning the Central District Championship and with an overall record of 15 wins and 6 losses. Throughout the season the Justices defeated every team at least once except Newport News.

In February, the team suffered the loss of Captain, and guard, James Reedy; forward, Bill Nunnally, and forward, Jack Howell. Despite this handicap, the Justices showed determination and a desire to win, headed by Bobby Jones, the new captain.

Although defeated by Thomas Jefferson during the regular season games, the Justices overcame T.J. in the semi-finals of the Central District Tournament. The team then beat Hermitage, winning the Central District Championship, and gaining a berth in the State Tournament.

Defeated by the Typhoons, of Newport News, in the first game of the State Tournament, the Justices were eliminated from the Tournament. A lot of school spirit was shown in the Tournament by both the team and the students of John Marshall.

The coaches awarded Lewis Hobson, "the most valuable player," and Bobby Jones, "the best defensive player," at the annual basketball banquet.

Out of the five starters this year, Tommy Godsey will be left to help the new five reach the goal of State Tournament.

Goode, W. Chapin, C. Hall, J. Dupuy, H. Pollard, H. Jarrett, L. Jarvis.

Although the John Marshall track team had only seven returning lettermen, it made a fair showing. Those returning were Eddie Clarke, John Hebner, Chap Hamlet, James Bennett, Tony Berry, Will Chapin, and John Godsey. Two outstanding newcomers were Calvin Farmer and Charles Ball, with Ball, running the 880, placing first in every meet.

This year the team defeated Highland Springs and St. Christopher's, while losing to Hopewell, Hermitage, Thomas Jefferson, and Manchester (by one point only).

Eddie Clarke, with his shot-put of 52 feet, came closer to breaking the shot-put record of 52′ 9½″ set by Joe Holland in 1950 than any high school shot-put competitor since.

Unlike other athletics at John Marshall, track is the only self-reliant sport. The boys know that if they lose, they have only themselves to blame. But on the other hand, if they win, the credit is theirs.

Both coach Goodlow and Coach Hollinsworth feel that hard work is a "must" for success. They know that practice makes perfect, so every day after school, you see the team out in the athletic field preparing for their next meet.

The boys all hope that next year's attendance will be better, for the spectators are the heart of every sport.

Standing: Clarence Parker, Jerry Moore, James Parker, Melvin Rideout, Tommy Perkins, Butch Harvell. In front: Lefty Davis, John Rose.

Although the John Marshall baseball team suffered the loss of many players from last year's starting line-up, the team is looking forward to a fair season. Missing from last year's team are Douglas Martin, All-Central District third baseman, and Dan Burroughs, city batting champion.

Billy Schwartz and Billy Graham, two of the returning lettermen, are expected to boost the John Marshall team with their hitting and defensive ability. Help is also expected from returning lettermen, Mel Rideout, Ace Parker, Jerry Moore, Earle Gibson, Garland Johnson, and Herbert Reynolds.

The left side of the infield will be one of the team's stronger points, with Billy Chambers, a sophomore, at third base, and Earle Gibson, a senior, at short stop.

Kenny Newsom and Eugene Bergh are battling for the second base position. Waylon Mangum will see service at first base and in the outfield.

John Marshall has the strongest catching staff in the city, with Billy Schwartz and Billy Graham behind the plate. Tommy Newsom will also see action behind the plate.

The pitching staff will be headed by Mel Rideout, a three letterman. Backing him up will be Ace Parker, Jimmy Parker, and Jerry Moore.

The John Marshall Girls' Hockey Team had the best season in the history of the teams for J. M., winning every game this year except the last. Their record stood at 4-1-1.

They started off the season by defeating Manchester, who had not lost a game in three years, by the score of 2-1.

Another great victory for the Justice Ladies was their defeat of Hopewell 3-2, after Hopewell had scored 2-0 against them. The team could not repeat this feat in their last game, for they lost to St. Catherine's 2-0.

Brenda Fisher and Norma Foster led the team in scoring with 8 and 4, respectively. This would have been impossible without the superb help of the backfield. Besides scoring, Brenda and Norma sparked the team by continual driving, beautiful plays, and teamwork. Leading the defensive were Pat Southworth and Carolyn Brown, with magnificent drives and stops, which played a big part in the team's success.

At the end of the season, the annual Tidewater Hockey Tournament was held at Westhampton College. Carolyn Brown, Lou Brown, and Pat Southworth made the first team. Norma Foster made the Reserve Team and Brenda Fisher won honorable mention.

Although the team is losing 7 of the starting 11 members, it hopes to be just as successful next year. Coming back will be Lou Brown, Sandy Foster, Norma Foster, Brenda Fisher, Claudette Shelton, Betty Dalton, and Florence Barnard.

The girls' basketball team had much rebuilding to do after losing five members of last year's varsity. Returning this year were Pat Southworth, Sandy Weeks, and Brenda Fisher. Those up from junior varsity were Norma Foster, Sandy Foster, Claudette Shelton, and Ruth Carver.

The Lady Basketeers won over St. Patrick's, Midlothian, Collegiate, Petersburg, and Hopewell, while losing to St. Gertrude's, Manchester, Thomas Jefferson, Freeman, and St. Catherine's.

After losing the first game, the Lady Basketeers went on a 3-game winning streak with tremendous scoring. But after the victory over Collegiate by a score of 60-32, the Lady Basketeers lost three straight. At the end of the season, they had a 5-5 record.

Norma Foster led the team in scoring with an average of 21.5 points per game. She made All-Prep Reserve at the annual Basketball Tournament, which was held in Petersburg. Sandy Weeks made All-Prep Reserve for the guards. Pat Southworth, captain and last year's member of the All-Prep Reserve, was unable to participate in the tournament because of an unfortunate accident.

The junior varsity, starting with all new members, ended with a record of 4-6 after much hard work. Four out of the six were by heart-breaking scores, not more than 6 points difference.

Strike three, the batter's out.

The 1956 girls' varsity softball team finished the season with a final tally of 4 wins against 4 losses.

The wins and losses were evenly distributed throughout the year. The team had victories over Midlothian, Petersburg, and St. Catherine's. It defeated Midlothian twice.

Statistics compiled for the 1956 season follow:

Homeruns: Sandy Weeks, Brenda Fisher, and Jeanette Talbott, one each.

Triples: Pat Southworth, two; Sandy Foster and Jeanette Talbott, one.

Doubles: Sandy Weeks, one.

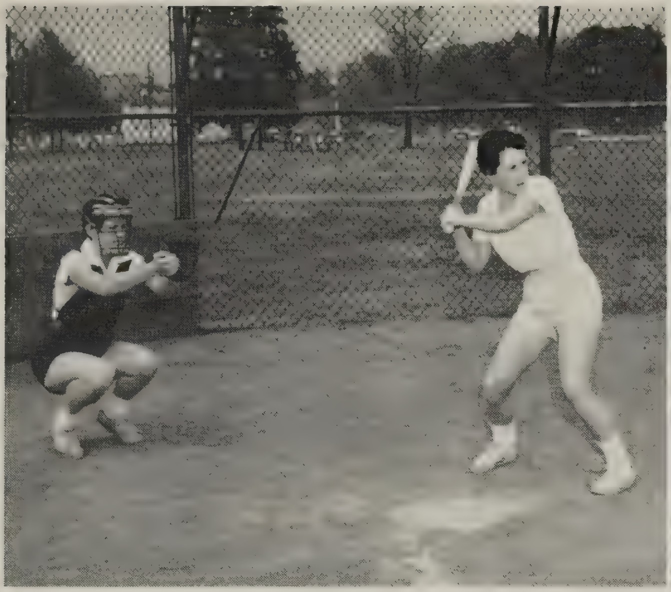
Hits: Jeanette Talbott led the team offensively with a batting average of .500. Betty Dalton and Sandy Foster followed close behind with averages of .288 and .269, respectively.

Runs scored: The three highest were Brenda Fisher, who scored 14; Pat Southworth, 12; and Jeanette Barnhill, 9.

Stolen bases: Jeanette Barnhill led the team with 16. Brenda Fisher and Pat Southworth, following close behind, with 15 and 11, respectively.

Errors: Norma Foster had the best defensive work on the team, committing only two errors during the entire season.

Pat Southworth was captain of the team. Next season seven girls will be returning, three of whom will be seniors.



Looks like Betty is out to get a homer for sure.

Come on, captain, strike her out!

That's running it, Brenda!

Too bad, Sandy, better luck next time!

There she blows!

CHEERLEADERS

SONJA TURNLEY

Every Tuesday night during the summer vacation found our Justice cheerleaders hard at work, practicing yells for the coming school year. Old cheers were perfected and new ones were introduced to the squad.

The cheerleaders made their debut orientation day, September 5, when they welcomed the new students with school songs and cheers.

In new white uniforms our Jayem rooters cheered their first football game on September 14, when John Marshall met Petersburg at Petersburg. Although Jayem was defeated with a score of 12-6, there was a big crowd present to aid the squad.

October 13, our cheerleaders participated in the Tobacco Bowl Festival Parade.

Yells were given by the senior cheerleaders for the Community Chest on John Marshall Day, October 22.

On November 3, our Jayem squad was among the twenty-five squads of cheerleaders who participated in the cheer rally sponsored by Thalhimers Department Store.

John Marshall helped to get the "ball rolling" for the March of Dimes, when the cheerleaders appeared on Teenage Party, Station WRVA, Channel 12, January 10. Two cheers were given for this worthy cause.

On January 12, our cheerleaders collected dimes on Broad Street as part of the campaign sponsored by "Teens Against Polio." Downtown shoppers were given miniature crutches as they donated to the "Block of Dimes" between 6th and 7th streets.

An eventful season for the cheerleaders was concluded by a series of victorious basketball games.

CANDY SHOES

Listen Cats and Kittens too,
We've got some red hot news for you.
Look at the score board,
What do you say?
The big blue team is really rocking today.
We've got candy shoes and candy socks,
And man we've got a team that really rocks.
You rock to the east and you rock to the west,
And you rock to the one that is the best.
Say rah, rah, rah rah rah,
Say rah, rah, rah rah rah,
Say rah, rah, rah rah rah,
Say rah.

FIVE CENTS, TEN CENTS

Five cents, ten cents, fifty cents, a dollar,
All for Jayem stand up and hollar.

JUSTICE BLUE

Justice Blue is really smooth
Justice White is in the groove
The Jayem team is really right
So come on team
Fight! Fight! Fight!

A - B - C - D

A-B-C-D-
E-F-G—
What a super team, have we,
H-I-J-K-L-M-N-O—
The Big Blue Team is ready to go—
P-Q-R-S-T-U-V-i-c-t-o-r-y, Victory!

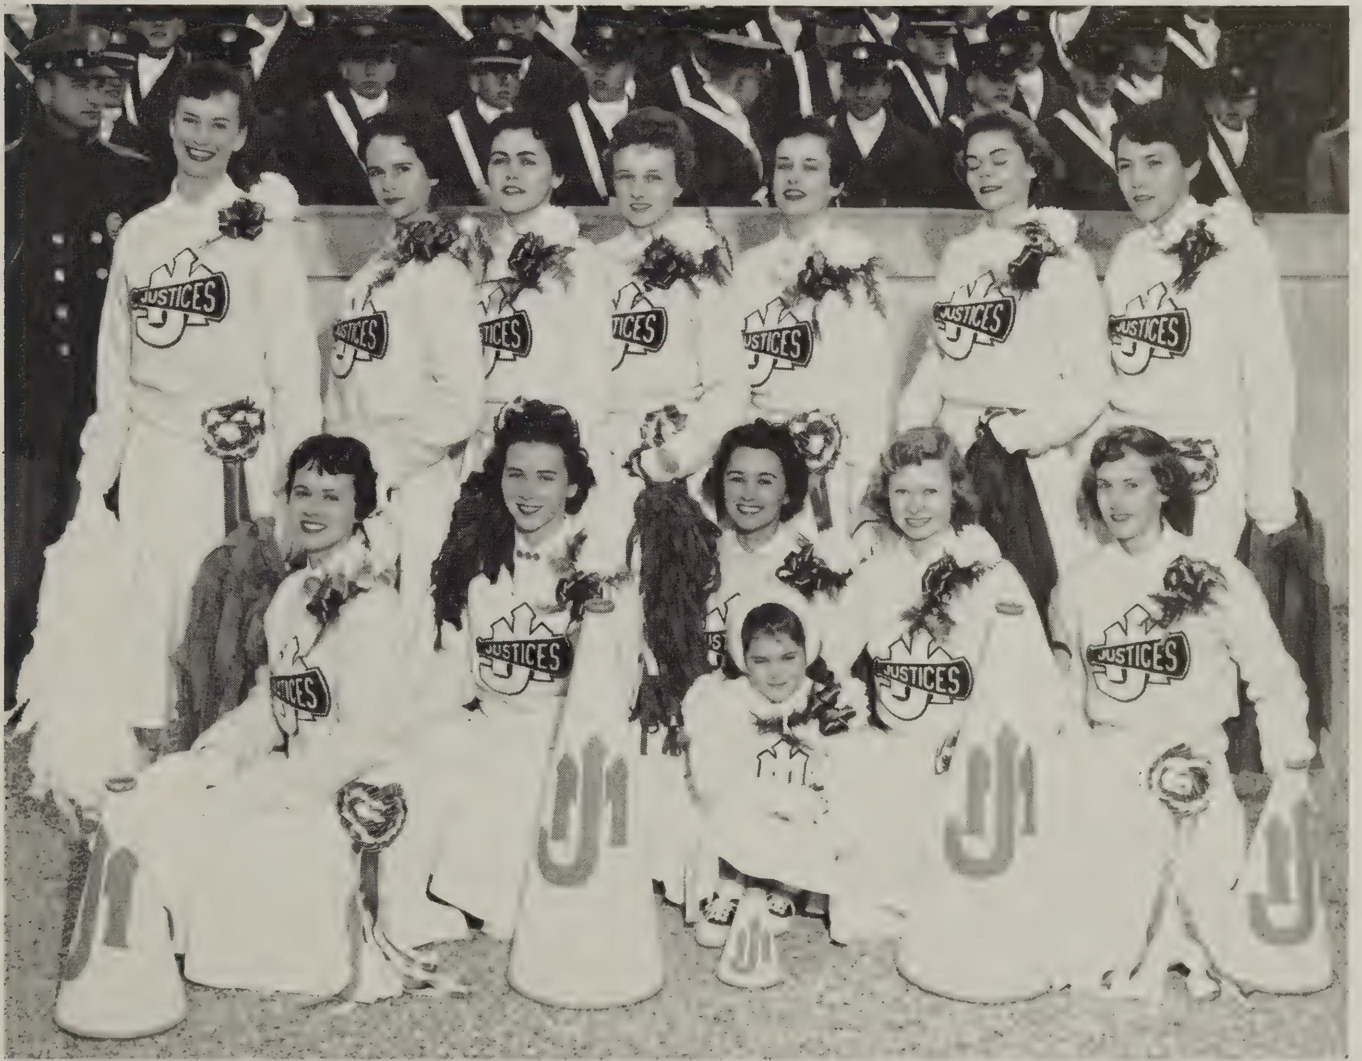
T - E - A - M

We've got a T-E-A-M,
It's on the B-E-A-M,
We've got a team; it's on the beam,
It's really hep to the jive—
Come on, Justices, man alive!



First Row: Anne Sutton, Judy Wray, Joan Bishop, Mascott Judy Martin, Betty Farley, Jackie Wright.

The roll call of John Marshall's seniors makes it evident that one's high-school life is not complete without participation in the extra-curricular activities provided.

Looking over his list of accomplishments, every senior has a feeling of satisfaction in a "job well done," whether it was large or small.

This last year each senior filled with various activities. To name them all would be an impossibility; to name only a part would show partiality.

With heartfelt appreciation of the untiring efforts of the school administration to make every senior's high-school life complete in every way, we now bid our alma mater farewell—our memories full of the wonderful days we spent at "dear old John Marshall."

MEMO TO:

the girl who wants an interesting job

You'll find it at the telephone company, where there's a variety of fascinating jobs for alert, capable young women who qualify.

You'll work in pleasant surroundings with many people about your own age . . . receive good pay while learning . . . get regular raises. And you don't need any experience.

Best of all, a telephone job is a satisfying job because you know you're helping almost everyone in your community. Why not find out more about the advantages of telephone work?

It's a good life
at The Life of Virginia

Your high school diploma is your passport to a good job with a real future, at the Home Office of The Life of Virginia. And it's a secure future with this 85-year-old insurance company...the kind of company you'll choose when you take out your own life insurance.

Come by or write for booklet that gives you the facts about your opportunities . . . how other young people have succeeded . . . and working conditions. Good pay, of course; five-day week; free advancement training courses; liberal vacations; air conditioned offices; employee cafeteria; insurance and retirement plans. It's all in the free folder, "Now, Really . . .". Be sure to get your copy.

The Mark of A Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

YOUR CHOICE OF FUTURES

. . . WITH Thrift!

● Opportunities for success in today's world are unlimited, provided you'll plan it . . . with personal thrift. Having money for advanced training—or as a stake in your own business—is possible for you to achieve. From this day forward save a part of all you earn . . . and let those dollars, in turn, work for you.

As a Specialized Savings Association, we welcome savings accounts of all sizes. You'll find our liberal earnings help savings grow quickly, encouraging you to save more. Thrift is not the only way to success, but it's the surest way!
